TO AND FROM EMMAUS WITH JESUS

“They were continually devoting themselves to the Apostolic Doctrine and to the Communion, to the Breaking of the Bread, and to the Prayers.”

(Acts of the Apostles 2:42)

This Week in the Church Year

The Resurrection of Our Lord is celebrated, not only throughout the fifty days of Eastertide, but every Sunday: the Lord’s Day, the day of His Resurrection, the first day of the week, and the eternal “eighth day” marking the dawn of the New Creation. For, indeed, if Christ has not been raised, then our faith is in vain, and we are of all men most to be pitied. But Christ has been raised, the firstborn from the dead, and the first-fruits of all who believe and are baptized into Him. So, after “holding our breath” during Lent, we exhale with a mighty chorus of Alleluias! Yet, we remember and proclaim the death of Christ til He comes, for it is the Victory of His Cross that is manifest in His Resurrection.

Emphasis: The Victory of the Cross Is Manifest in the Resurrection

The Catechism: Confession & Holy Absolution, Part II

What sins should we confess?

Before God we should plead guilty of all sins, even those we are not aware of, as we do in the Lord's Prayer; but before the Pastor we should confess only those sins which we know and feel in our hearts.

The Hymns of the Week

“AWAKE, MY HEART, WITH GLADNESS”

LSB #467

[Daily Prayer: Invocation, Apostles' Creed, Kyrie Eleison, and the Our Father]:

In the Name ☩ of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and ☩ the life everlasting. Amen.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father Who art in heaven. Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory forever & ever. Amen.

[The Collects of the Week and other prayers for the days of the week]:

The Feast of St. Mark, the Evangelist

Friday, 25 April

St. Mark was the author of the second Gospel, which he composed, according to some early Church Fathers, when the Christians in Rome asked him to write down the preaching of the Apostle Peter. Mark, also known as John Mark, was originally from Jerusalem, where the house of his mother Mary was the center of the early Jerusalem Church (Acts 12:12). He was brought from Jerusalem by Paul and Barnabas to Antioch (12:25) before setting out with them on the first missionary journey. When Paul and Barnabas were preparing to go on the second missionary journey, Barnabas wanted to take Mark with them again, but Paul objected because Mark had left them during the first journey. Barnabas took Mark and went to Cyprus, while Paul took Silas as his new companion (15:37–40). Later on Paul reconciled with Mark and was working with him again (Colossians 4:10; Philemon 24; 2 Timothy 4:11). Finally, Mark was found laboring with Peter in Rome (1 Peter 5:13). Tradition says that Mark was instrumental in founding the Church in Alexandria and became its first bishop, and also that he suffered a martyr's death.

Let each his lesson learn with care, and all the household well shall fare.

Acts 5:29–42: The holy Apostles, who were eyewitnesses of the life & ministry, the death and Resurrection of Jesus, were entrusted with the Ministry of the Gospel: the preaching of the Cross, unto repentance and the forgiveness of sin.

1 Peter 1:3–9: By grace through faith, those who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been born again to a living hope in His Resurrection from the dead. For faith in Christ, which is itself God's work and His gracious gift, has for its content the surpassing treasure of Christ Jesus Himself and His salvation.

St. John 20:19–31: In the appearance of the risen Lord Jesus to His Apostles (minus Thomas) on the evening of the first Easter Sunday, He gave the Office of the Keys and the gift of Holy Absolution to His Church on earth. By this means of grace, His called and ordained ministers of the Gospel—His “sent ones” (which is what “apostle” means)—grant new life to repentant sinners in His Name and with His Spirit. By the same grace of God, on the Eighth Day of Easter, so was Thomas called from unbelief to faith, from doubt to discipleship.
