✝ DAILY CATECHESIS ON THE WAY ✝

TO AND FROM EMMAUS WITH JESUS

✝ THE FOURTH WEEK IN ANGELS' TIDE ✝

“They were continually devoting themselves to the Apostolic Doctrine and to the Communion, to the Breaking of the Bread, and to the Prayers.”

(Acts of the Apostles 2:42)

This Week in the Church Year

In rendering unto Caesar his due, as one given temporal authority under God, we also render honor and obedience to the Lord who governs His entire creation by His Word. By the same token, if coins bearing the image and inscription of Caesar are to be rendered unto him, in paying taxes, so shall man—who is made in the image and likeness of God—be rendered as a living sacrifice unto the Lord. This is accomplished by that Man who is God incarnate, whose Cross bears the true but ironic inscription: “Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews.” Indeed, it is from the Cross that Jesus reigns as the true King over all the nations of the earth, whom He has redeemed by His precious blood.

Emphasis: We Are Recreated in God’s Image by the Cross of Christ

The Order of Daily Catechesis in Word and Prayer

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of daily catechesis as you and your family are able. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

[The Opening Versicles and Psalmody]:

O Lord, open my lips. And my mouth will declare Your praise.

Make haste, O God, to deliver me. Make haste to help me, O Lord.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm 96:1–9 (and/or one or more of the appointed Psalms listed below)

Psalms	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Morning	110, 150	62, 145	13, 146	95, 147:1–11	116, 133, 147:12–20	85, 148	61, 149
Evening	66, 23	73, 8	36, 5	132, 134	26, 31, 130	25, 40	138, 98

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The Verse: Colossians 2:10

In [Christ] you have been made complete, and He is the Head over all rule and authority.

The Catechism: The Conclusion of the Ten Commandments

What does God say about all these Commandments?

He says: “I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My Commandments.” (Exodus 20:5–6)

What does this mean?

God threatens to punish all who break these Commandments. Therefore, we should fear His wrath and not do anything against them. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep these Commandments. Therefore, we should also love and trust in Him and gladly do what He commands.

The Hymns of the Week

“HOLY GOD, WE PRAISE THY NAME”

LSB #940

[Daily Prayer: Invocation, Apostles’ Creed, Kyrie Eleison, and the Our Father]:

In the Name ☩ of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and ☩ the life everlasting. Amen.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father Who art in heaven. Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory forever & ever. Amen.

[The Collects of the Week, Intercessions for each day of the week, and Special Petitions]:

(Thursday, 23 October) Collect for the Feast of St. James of Jerusalem:

Heavenly Father, Shepherd of Your people, You raised up James the Just, brother of our Lord, to lead and guide Your Church. Grant that we may follow his example of prayer and reconciliation and be strengthened by the witness of his death; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. (Amen)

Collect for the Fourth Week in Angels' Tide:

O God, the Protector of all who trust in You, have mercy on us that, with You as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. (Amen)

Daily Themes for Intercessory Prayer:

- Sunday: For the joy of the Resurrection; for the faithful preaching and hearing of God's Word; for the fruit of faith nourished by the Word and Sacraments.
- Monday: For faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; for vocations and daily work; for the unemployed; for the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for Resurrection Lutheran Academy and other schools, our home schools, our colleges and seminaries; for good government and peace.
- Tuesday: For deliverance against temptation and evil; for the addicted and despairing; for the tortured and oppressed; for those struggling with sin.
- Wednesday: For marriage and family, that husbands and wives, parents and children live in ordered harmony according to the Word of God; for parents who must rear their children alone; for our communities and neighborhoods.
- Thursday: For the Church and her pastors; for missionaries, teachers, deaconesses, and other servants of Christ and His Church; for the fruitful and salutary use of the blessed Sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood.
- Friday: For the preaching of the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; for its spread throughout the whole world; for the persecuted; for the sick and dying.
- Saturday: For faithfulness to the end; for the renewal of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; for pastors as they prepare to administer Christ's holy gifts; for receptive hearts and minds on the Lord's Day.

In our Prayers this Week at Emmaus:

Naomi Kavouras, upon the birth of a daughter, Annabelle, on October the 11th;

Erik Horner, as he continues his Marine training in California; and

Luke Harrison and Caleb, Noah, and Jesse Smith, as they are preparing for the rite of confirmation (on 2 November), and as they confess their faith in Christ.

[The Daily Morning or Evening Prayer, the Benedicamus, and the Benediction]:

(Morning): We thank You, Lord God, heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept us this night from all harm and danger; and we pray that You would keep us this day also from sin and every evil, that all our doings and life may please You; for into Your hands we commend ourselves, our bodies and souls and all things; let Your holy Angel be with us, that the wicked foe may have no power over us. Amen.

(Evening): We thank You, Lord God, heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept us this day from all harm and danger; and we pray that You would forgive us all our sins, wherever we have done wrong, and graciously keep us this night; for into Your hands we commend ourselves, our bodies and souls and all things; let Your holy Angel be with us, that the wicked foe may have no power over us. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the Love of God and the Communion of the Holy Spirit ☩ be with us all.

Amen.

Then, if it is in the morning, go joyfully to your work, according to your vocations in life, in faith toward God and in love toward your neighbor; or, if it is at the close of the day, go to sleep at once and in good cheer.

The Feast of St. James of Jerusalem, Bishop and Martyr Thursday, 23 October

St. James of Jerusalem (“James the Just”) is described as “the Lord’s brother” (Gal. 1:19). Some theologians believe that James was a son of Joseph and Mary and therefore a biological half-brother of Jesus. Others understand the term, “brother,” as “cousin” or “kinsman.” Along with other relatives of our Lord (excepting His mother), James did not believe in Jesus until following His Resurrection (St. John 7:3–5; 1 Corinthians 15:7). After becoming a Christian,

James was elevated to a position of leadership in the earliest Christian community. Especially following St. Peter's departure from Jerusalem, James was recognized as the Bishop of the Church in that holy city (Acts 12:17; 15:12ff). According to the historian Josephus, James was martyred by being stoned to death in A.D. 62 by the Sadducees. James authored the Epistle in the New Testament that bears his name. In it he exhorts his readers to remain steadfast in the one true faith, even in the face of suffering and temptation, and to live by faith the life that is in Christ Jesus. Such a faith, he makes clear, is a busy and active thing, which never ceases to do good, to confess the Gospel by words and actions, and to stake its life, both now and forever, in the Cross.

Commemoration of Dorcas, Lydia & Phoebe, Faithful Women Saturday, 25 October

These women were exemplary Christians who demonstrated their faith by their material support of the Church. Dorcas (also known as Tabitha) was well-known and much loved for her acts of charity in the city of Joppa, especially for making clothes for the poor. When Dorcas died suddenly, the members of her congregation sent to the neighboring city of Lydda for the Apostle Peter, who came and raised her from the dead (Acts 9:36–41). Lydia was a woman of Thyatira, who worked at Philippi selling a famous purple dye that was so much in demand in the ancient world. She was also a “worshiper of God” at the local synagogue. When the Apostle Paul encountered her in prayer among other proselyte women, his preaching of the Word brought Lydia to faith in Christ. She and her friends became the nucleus of the Christian community in Philippi (16:13–15, 40). Phoebe was another faithful woman associated with the Apostle Paul. She was a deaconess from Cenchrae (the port of Corinth) whom Paul sent to the church in Rome with his Epistle to the Romans. In it he writes of her support for the work of the early Church (Rom 16:1).

Let each his lesson learn with care, and all the household well shall fare.

- LSB #504 Father Most Holy, Merciful and Tender
- LSB #564 Christ Sits at God's Right Hand
- LSB #579 The Law of God Is Good and Wise
- LSB #581 These Are the Holy Ten
- LSB #745 In God, My Faithful God
- LSB #821 Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

Leviticus 19:1–2, 15–18: The people of God are to be holy, as He is holy. Which is to say, they are to fear, love and trust in Him above all things; and, for His sake, they are to love and serve their neighbors in thought, word and deed.

1 Thessalonians 2:1–13: In his hard work and suffering, as also in preaching and teaching, St. Paul has made known the Gospel as the very Word of God.

St. Matthew 22:34–46: By His incarnation, the almighty and eternal Son of God has become the Son of David, conceived and born of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In His own flesh, He has fulfilled the entire Law of God in faith and holy love.
